SULZER'S HEALTH IS ON THE WANE

NEARING BREAKDOWN

Attorneys in Close Consultation—Friends of Governor Said to Foresee Defeat.

Albany, N. Y., Sept .20.—The physical condition of William Sulzer, impeached governor of the State, is causing worry today. He is probably nearer a complete breakdown than ever before in his long political career. Despite the reassuring declarations of those closest to him, and the indignant statements of his intimates that he never was in as good health, it developed today that he is really far from a well man. He is not under the care of a physician, but has been persuaded to remain quietly at the "people's house" under the watchful eye of Mrs. Sulzer.

When his attorneys have exhausted all of his technicalties through which they have hope of crushing the case against him, Sulzer may come to the impeachment court in person, and dramatically become the chief figure of his own trial. But if he should do this it will be against the earnest protests of his chief counsel.

The Sulzer attorneys were in close consultation here today while most of the prosecutors had gone back home. The camp followers of the governor, foreseeing certain defeat in his present contention that the assembly did not have the power to impeach him in an extra session. They have one technicality left and it is the one on which they are hopeful they will be able to line up the majority of the judges of the court of appeals on their side. That is whether an official can be tried for "high crimes and misdemeanors" when these same offenses were committed prior to his taking the oath of office. The Sulzer attorneys are on this one question alone a unit. They are hopeful than the court will take their way of thinking and decide that because of that fact, Sulzer cannot be tried on the articles of impeachment now before it.

It is admitted, however, that they have little hope that they can gain anything than a technical victory in this way. They would accept a favorable verdict from a majority of the judges of the court of appeals as a strong point in their favor. A majority of the senators, they believe, would vote against this contention, but the judges who voted for it would be depended on, when the final question of guilt or innocence was pending, to refuse to convict on that technical ground and thus prevent a two-thirds of ouster.

BOY SCOUTS OF ALEXANDRIA.

Will Celebrate Third Anniversary Friday, October 10th.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Sergt. Barry, of Denver, Col., has looked at innumerable slit skirts without turning color until Thursday, when he beheld Mrs. Dora Funk, a young bride of six weeks, standing in front of a cafe looking for her sister. "I beg your pardon, ma'am said the officer, as he placed his hands on the young woman' shoulder. "But I guess you had better come along with me.It is none of my business if you slit your skirt on one side, but when you slit both sides of it and then tie up your stockings with red bows, why I'll be blest if I don't have to arrest you for blocking traffic." Mrs. Funk's case will be heard today.

President Wilson will make a strong recommendations for adequate appropriations for the army and the navy in his forthcoming message to congress. Events of the first six months of his administration in Mexico, Santo Domingo, and in the Orient have impressed upon the President and his advisers the necessity for maintaining a strong army and navy. He intends to treat all such questions upon the broad ground that whatever is needed for national defense should be provided by Congress, and that economy should be practiced in other directions.

The assessed value of real estate in New York City this year passes the $8,000,000,000 mark.The exact figures made public today are $8,010,000,000 This is an increase over last year of $150,000,000. The bulk of the increase comes from the new hotels and office buildings erected on the West Side in the neighborhood of 42nd street. The increased assessment enlarges the city's borrowing capacity by $15,000,000.

Elsie, the 16-months- old daughter of Earl Rogers, a farmer, living near Laurel, Del., was drowned Thursday in a tub of water which Rogers had drawn for the horses before he and his wife left the house temporarily.

Well known as the oldest minister of the gospel in Washington, Rev. Benjamin F. Bittinger died suddenly yesterday evening at his home, 638 F street southwest. Dr. Bittinger who was 90 years of age, was in excellent health until midafternoon yesterday, when he was stricken with paralysis and died four hours later. He was the oldest graduate from Princeton Theological Seminary, having been ordained a Presbyterian minister in 1847. He was born at Waynesboro, Pa., August 10, 1824.

Hans Schmidt, slayer of Anna Aumuller, asked for quick death in a statement in New York yesterday. "The district attorney wants me to go to the electric chair, and I want to go," he said. "What's the use delaying?" Schmidt afterwards expressed ideas on the taking of human life that fitted in with the theory of Inspector Faurot, in charge of the murder investigation, that the renegrade priest might have been planning a series of homicides. He declared himself a believer in enthunasia, and that he would be doing right in taking the lives of the crippled and of persons undergoing mental or physical suffering, detectives who talked with him yesterday afternoon reported. "I believe I would be carrying out God's will," Schmidt said, "if I put out of this world all such people. I would end their lives without their suffering any pain."

While on picket duty in the Isle Royale Mine in the copper miner's strike zone in Michigan, before daylight yesterday morning, Randolph Harvey, a private of Company A, Kalamazoo, was shot from ambush and wounded in the arm. A general alarm was sounded and soldiers and deputies scoured the woods nearby, but found no trace of the would-be assassin. The shooting is believed to have been done by a strike sympathizer. A big demonstration is planned by the Western Federateion of Miners at Calumet Sunday noon. The strikers will be addressed by John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Mineworkers.

Probably the longest sentence ever meted out to a murderer in a New Mexico court was imposed yesterday by Judge Edward L. Medler in the district court at Estacia, when he accepted Justiano Moya's plea of guilty of murder in the second degree and sentenced him to the state penitentiary for not less than 150 years and not more than 160 years.

RESOLUTION IS LAID ON THE TABLE

Confederate Veterans Debate Pensions at Grand Encampment.

REAL FIGHT OF BODY.

Organization Will Meet Next Year at Newport News—Appeal for Woman's Home.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 20.—Following the selection of Newport News as the next meeting place, the adoption of resolutions of thanks to the various organizations of the Confederacy of Roanoke, the press, the Boy Scouts and the citizens generally, for the hospitality extended the visiting veterans, and the distribution of tickets for a hurried trip to Mill Mountain, the twenty-sixth anual meetin gof the Grand Camp, Virginia Confederate Veterans, adjourned yesterday afternoon.

The delegates and visitors immediatlely boarded special trolley cars at the Jefferson Theatre for a trip to Mill Mountain, returning in time for the grand parade in the afternoon.

Yesterday's session of the grand camp was by far the most interesting of the meeting. From the rap of the gavel at 10:20 o'clock yesterday morning business moved with a rush, and so amazingly fast was one subject rushed to conclusion and another taken up that at times it was impossible to gather the full import of a maze of resolutions, amendments and objections.

Major S. H. Love, of Lunenburg, precipitated the real fight of the session, when near the end, he offered a resolution which had as its object the memorializing of the Federal Congress for pensions for Confederate soldiers, Samuel W. Williams, Attorney-General, opposed the resolution.

"It is proper that such movement come from the North and South alike. When the North will aid in such request to Congress action will be appropriate,' he said. "Oppose the resolution and go back home and think the matter over, agitate it in camps until a unanimity of purpose on the part of the North and South brings the desired object to pass," said the speaker.

"Gettysburg was a step forward, but the time is not ripe. Southern manhood must not come under any possible shadow."

General Williams advocated the appointment of a committee to confer on the subject and report back to the next reunion.

No hope of success is apparent until Northern sentiment favors the movement," said General Williams."

E. R. Cogbill, of Caroline, briefly oposed the Federal pension resolution, and appealed to the camp to vote it down emphatically.

Colonel Love's resolution was brought up on motion from the floor to table An aye and nay vote was undecidable, and division was asked amid much confusion.

The resolution was tabled.

CARLIN OFFERS A PRIZE.

Donates $25 in Green Hunter Class at Fairfax Show.

Hon. Charles C. Carlin, has offered a prize of $25 in the green hunter class at the Fairfax county fair which will be held at Fairfax courthouse on October 1st, 2nd an d3rd. The list of prizes is unusually large and will result in a large number of entries in all the competitive events. Work is steadily advancing on the buildings and grounds and there will be plenty of room to give the show an adequate setting.

PUBLISH ALL THE NAMES.

(Communicated.)

I notice the Gazette publishes only the names of negroes who were cited to appear in the Police Court for keeping unlicensed dogs. The white person is entitled to less consideration than the negro. He considers himself, and properly so, superior to his negro neighbor, and no favor should be shown him that is not accorded the negro. "Fair play is a jewel." J

MAKES ATTACK ON MANUFACTURERS

Gompers Says Lobby Investigation Has Exposed Their Methods.

NOT AGAINST LABOR.

Labor Chief Alleges Federation Was Urged to Publish Mulhall Letters Two Years Ago.

Washington, Sept. 20.—"A complete, convincing exposure of the corrupt methods and the laborcrushing, anti-labor program of the National Association of Manufacturers."

This is what President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, today declared is the principal result of the joint lobby investigations of the Senate and House President Gompers today, upon the practical conclusion of the lobby inquiries, gave his views regarding the actual acomplishments and probable results of the sensational lobby investigation provoked by President Wilson.

That the investigation has not been inimical to the cause of organized labor was declared by the labor leader. He said it was inconceivable that either the Senate or House Committees would favor or attempt to report legislation cutting off the right of American citizens to appeal to their representatives in Congress for reforms.

For the first time President Gompers gave some "inside information" regarding alleged past attempts of Congressman McDermott of Illinois, and Colonel Mulhall, star lobbyist for the N. A .M., to expose the manufacturers' association heads. He said two years ago McDermott and Mulhall urged the American Federation to make the expose and publish the Mulhall letters disclosed by the committee.

HIGH SCHOOL IN THE COUNTY.

First Institution Will Commence Monday Morning.

The first high school to be instituted in Alexandria county, will be commenced on next Monday morning in the Mt. Vernon district school of the Jefferson district. A full four-year course which will meet the requirements of the state board of education will be commenced. The first year will start with an enrollment of 15 scholars. The school now has a faculty of eight teachers, and as the number of pupils in the high school increase additions will be made to the teaching force. The decision to start the high school was made last night at a meeting of the school trustees of the Jefferson district. The trustees organized for the year with the election of R. A. Wilkerson as chairman and John H. Trimyer, as clerk.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS.

Two Brothers From Manassas Get Into Trouble During Visit to City.

Sergeant Scott last night had his attention attracted by the actions of two men who were drunk on Queen street, between Royal and Fairfax. They entered an alley and while the sergeant was creeping upon them he saw the two strangers were endeavoring to raise the window of a residence. He immediately took charge of the couple and brought them before the Police Court this morniug. They gave their names as Claude and Robert Garrett.

After the sergeant had made his statement the elder brother in reply to questions said he came from Manassas. Upon being asked his business in Alexandria he said he came here to get something to drink. He also said he was drunk last night and did not know what he was doing. The younger said he was 18 years old, but added nothing to the statement of the older brother. They were fined $5 each for drunken and disorderly conduct.

Oyster Season Now Open at Rammel Cafe.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The public schools of Alexandria county will open their fall sesion on Monday morning. A number of improvements have been made in the various school houses.

The board of supervisors of Fairfax county have completed extensive repairs to the Hunting Creek bridge a mile south of Alexandria, and on the automobile road between Washington and Mt. Vernon. A new floor of four inch planks has been laid.

A deed was recorded in the clerk's office of the Corporation Court today from Edgar Lewis et al. to Lewis Smith, transferring to the latter a house and lot on the west side of Payne street, between Cameron and Queen.

Mrs. William B. Wood and little Miss Virginia Wilkins have returned home after spending the past month in Bluemont.

DEATH OF MRS. HERFURTH.

Mrs. Louise Herfurth died at her residence in Washington yesterday, in her 87th year. She is survived by two children. Mrs Hugo Herfurth, of this city, and Mrs. Theresa Zell, of Washington. Funeral arrangements will be made later.

TENDERS RESIGNATION.

Captain Geoghan Retires From Potomac River Service.

After more than fifty years of service as a master of vessels on the Chesapeake Bay, Captain William T. Geoghan, master of the steamer Three Rivers and dean of the navigation of Chesapeake,has tendered his resignation to Willard Thompson, general manager af the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway.

During the civil war he served with much credit on the ironclads and gunboats. At the outbreak of the war he received his license as master of steam vessels and entered the service of the United States government He served with General Butler at the bombardment of Fort Hatteras, with General Burnside at the capture of Roanoke Island and Newbern, N. C., and was captain of the United States ship Pocahontas in General Banks' expedition November 1, 1862, up the Mississippi river.

During the civil war he was on officer on the mail steamer Electric Spark, Captain Graham, of Alexandria, which was captured by the Confederate steamer Florida off the Virginia coast. The Electric Spark was destroyed by the Florida after the passengers and crew had been taken off and transfered to a passing vessel.

BRYAN'S OPINION NOT ENDORSED

Banking Association Not Responsible For Burton's Views.

ARE SILENT ON BILL.

Association Makes no Observations on the Currency Measure Recently Passed.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 20.—While taking no action on the currency bill, the American Institute of Banking, in a resolution unanimously adopted before the final adjournment yesterday afternoon, asserted that it was not responsible for the views expressed on Thursday by its invited guests, Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan and Senator Theodore E. Burton. Widely divergent opinion had been voiced by the two distinguished speakers, and more than once during the day members of the institute differed with Mr. Bryan. In lieu of proposals to take decisive action on the currency queston, the committee on resolutions reported a carefully worded paper, disclaiming "any and all responsibility for statements made by invited speakers," and that any opinions expressed or policies advanced by them were not to be construed as bearing the endorsement of the Institute."

Resolutions were also adopted looking to the establishment of a national institute for members of the association who become ill.

While presiding over a prolonged business session in the Jefferson auditorium yesterday afternoon, President Byron W. Moser, of St. Louis, fainted, and had to be carried from the platform. Physicians stated at a late hour that the attack resulted from overstrain in the convention, and that he was rapidly improving. Under direction of Vice-President Harry V. Haynes, of Washington, the institute closed its eleventh annual convention, selecting Dallas, Tex., as the next place of meeting, and electing the following officers:

President—H. J. Dreher, of Milwaukee.

Vice-president—James D. Garrett, of Baltimore.

Secretary—Walter B. Kramer, of Scranton, Pa.

Treasurer—M. J. Mulcahey, of Minneapolis.

Executive council—E. J. Morris, of Philadelphia; W. O. Bird, of Denver, and George H. Keesee, of Richmond.

The newly elected officers were installed shortly after 6 o'clock last night, and the convention reached a final adjournment. A dance was tendered the visitors last night at the Richmond Hotel, and an all-day excursion on James River today will be the chief social feature planned for the delegates, practically all of those in attendance having secured cards for the excursion. Many of them will leave for New York or Boston by boat from Norfolk, others returning to Richmond by special train this afternoon.

The next convention will be held at Hartford.

FINED AND IMPRISONED

Antonio Fiermonte Assessed Ten Dollars and Given Thirty Days in Jail

The case of Antonio Fiermonte, who conducts a store on upper King street, at whose place of business five stolen bicycles were found this week, came before the Police Court this morning.

Fiermonte was represented by Robinson Moncure, and S. G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, appeared for the prosecution.

Before any evidence had been taken counsel for the prisoner made a statement in which he said Fiermonte acknowledged purchasing the wheels from negroes who entered Alexandria via. the Shooter's Hill road. Mr. Moncure suggested that as this was the first time his client had been in trouble, and that although the dignity of the law should be upheld, he asked that the punishment be made as light as possible.

The Commonwealth's Attorney announced that the state would be satisfied with a light penalty under the circumstances.

Teh accused was therefore assessed $10 and in addition sentenced to serve 30 days in jail.

The wheels, which belong to Washingtonians, will be returned to their owners as soon as they shall have been properly identified.

DEATH OF MRS. J. M. HILL

Suddenly Expires at Her Home on Prince Street Last Evening

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. Marriott Hill were shocked and distressed last night to learn that Mrs. Hill had died suddenly at her home, 410 Prince street, at half past seven o'clock. Her death was so unexpected that the members of the family could hardly realize that she had passed away.

Mrs. Hill had been entertaining a few friends at supper during which she appeared to be unusually cheerful. She left the dining room to attend to some matters in an adjoining room when Mr. Hill heard a heavy fall. When he reached the side of his wife she was dead. Dr. T. Marshall Jones, who resides on the opposite side of the street, was called in and pronounced life extinct. Heart failure is believed to have been the cause of her death.

Mrs. Hill had not been well for some time but it was not known that she had any organic trouble that would caused her death so suddenly.

When the news of Mrs. Hill's death spread with rapidity over the city there was a large number of friends of the family who called at the residence and offered their condolences.

Mrs. Hill was identified with a number of charitable organizations in this city, and was a woman who devoted much of her time to the assistance of others. She was a prominent member of the Seventeenth Regiment Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, and took a great deal of interest in the affairs of that organization. She was also deeply interested in many of the activities of St. Paul's Church.

Mrs. Hill was Miss Roberta Crook before her marriage to Mr. Hill. She leaves three brothers, Robert N Crook, of this city, and A. Crawford Crook and Bernard Crook, of Washington, and one sister, Mrs Agnes Adam, of Washington.

Her funeral will be held on Monday morning at ten o'clock from the residence and will be conducted by the Rev. Father Kelly, of St. Mary's Church. Interment will be made in the family lot at St. Mary's cemetery.

PENN HELD FOR GRAND JURY.

The case of John Penn, Frank Wilkins, and John Gilmartin, charged with stealing several hundred pounds of rope from W. A. Smoot & Company came up in the Police Court this morning.

The evidence satisfied the court that the trio was guilty, and Penn, who has been convicted fou rtimes of petit larceny during the past seven years, was sent on to the grand jury. Wilkins and Gilmartin were sentenced to serve ninety days on the roads.

Penn and Wilkins have been inmates of the penitentiary.

Wilkins claimed that he found the rope on Queen street and paid his companions to aid him in transporting it to a junk dealer.

STUART NON COMMITTAL.

Refuses to Say Whether He Favors Tucker of Flood.

Henry C. Stuart, of Russell, Democratic nominee for governor of Virginia, unopposed in his party primary and likely to have no Republican opposition, was in Roanoke Thursday, and probably will be here most of today. He has a room at the Shenandoah Club, of which he is a non-resident member. He talked freely to his friends of the published reports of his political plans and purposes, especially as regards the predicted battle between Hal D. Flood, representative in the lower House of Congress from the Tenth District, and Harry St. George Tucker.

On of these friends met Mr. Stuart and said to him with some effusion: "I see by the newspapers that you intend to give your influence to help Harry Tucker against Hal Flood."

"Yes, it was in the newspapers all right," replied Mr. Stuart, a little grimly.

"Well, I do hope it is true," said the friend.

"It isn't true," Mr. Stuart declared emphatically. "There is not a word of truth in it. I haven't promised support to Mr. Tucker or to anybody else and will not give any such promises. Doesn't it strike you that a man in the responsible place of Governor of Virginia will have enough to do attending to the business of his office without meddling in contests among Democrats?"

"It seems to me the people of the Tenth District are capable of managing their own affairs and saying who they want in Congress without interference from me."

Mr. Stuart refused to indicate even a present personal preference as between Flood and Tucker. He said he regarded that as an affair for the people to determine and that he could not see that anybody outside had the right to interfere.

Friends Expected Her to Die.

"I sincerely believe my life was saved in the Fall of 1910 by using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dirrhoea remedy," writes Mrs. Agnes Booth, Tonowanda, N. Y. "I was taken with diarrhoae followed by an attack of acute indigestion. Power of the pen fails to portray the agonies I endured. My friends expected me to die as I had been unable to get relief for so long a time. This remedy went directly to the seat of the trouble and cured me in a few hours' time." For sale by all dealers.

USED HER OWN BIBLE.

Richmond Woman Carries Her Own Volume Into Court.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 20.—How to circumvent the danger of contagion from the germ-laden Bibles used to swear witnesses in Justice Crutchfield's court was nicely solved yesterday by Mrs. Mary C. Barksdale.

She brought her own Bible to court in her handbag.

When the time came for her to take the witness stand, she took out her Bible, held it in her hand while the judge administered the oath and pressed the cover to her lips.

Judge Moncure, of the Chancery Court, who accompanied Mrs. Barksdale to the court room, made a movement as if to take the Bible from her and place it on the judge's desk after she had been sworn.

"No thank you, that's my own," murmured Mrs. Barksdale and replaced the book in her reticule. What she had done had escaped notice up to this moment and the news, quickly spreading, created a mild stir.

The statement has been frequently made that all manner of disease germs lurk in the covers of the Bibles kept in the court-room because of the promiscuous kissing the books receive.

Mrs. Barksdale was witness against Robert Eps, colored, charged with passing two checks to which her name was forged.

NORFOLK MAN URGED.

Friends Favor Judge W. B. Martin for Supreme Court.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 20.—Friends of Judge W. B. Martin, of the Court of Law and Chancery of Norfolk, are mentioning his name for the Supreme Court of Virginia, as the successor to Judge Buchanan, who will not seek re-election at the hands of the coming legislature.

Judge J. F. West, of Sussex, who desires to go upon the supreme bench, has been endorsed for this honor by the bars of Brunswick and Greensville counties.

Judge Staples, of Roanoke; Assistant Attorney general R. B. Davis, of Petersburg, and others are being mentioned for the position. John L. Jeffries, of Norfolk, has also been mentioned.

MR. BRYAN AT CULPEPER.

He Delivers Lecture Before an Enthusiastic Audience.

Culpeper, a., Sept. 20.—Secretary of State Bryan was the attraction at the Chautauqua which opened here yesterday. A large crowd heard the distinguised orator, whose theme was "The Making of a Man."

Mr. Bryan was met at the station by a reception committee and a cheering crowd. He was taken first to the home of the late Judge Daniel A. Grimsley and then to the tent, where he was greeted by another demonstration He spoke for about an hour. Judge Shackelford presided and introduced Mr. Bryan.

After the lecture Mr. Bryan said that the Mexican situation was not now especially alarming and he hoped that affairs with that republic would soon be peacefably adjusted.

WOMAN SHOOTS NEIGHBOR.

Quarrels Over Chickens And Children Cause Probable Murder.

Statesboro, Ga., Sept. 20.—At Parish, a small town fifteen miles from here, Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Judson Howard was shot and it is feared fatally wounded by Mrs. W. M. Parish, a neighbor.

Mrs. Parish used a shotgun and shot out one of Mrs. Howard's eyes and otherwise wounded her.

The women were neighbors, and are alleged to have been unfriendly for some time because of quarrels over their children and chickens.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Howard went into her yard, and Mrs. Parish is alleged to have appeared with a shotgun and threatened to shoot her. Mrs. Howard returned to the house, and when she came out with a gun Mrs. Parish shot her twice. She fell in the yard, and since the shooting has been in a critical condition. It was hoped to bring her to Statesboro for treatment, but her physicians say she is too badly wounded to be moved.

Mrs. Parish was arrested by a bailiff but released on bond. The relatives of the wounded woman are here to have her arrested again for assault with intent to murder.

ENFORCING THE DOG LAW.

The Police Court was kept busy yesterday in disposing of cases where persons were harboring unlicensed dogs or allowing unmuzzled dogs to run at large. Both white and colored delinquents were before the court and in all cases where it was apparent the accused were guilty of violations of the law the penalty was exacted.

Several persons were haled before the bar this morning to answer the charge of ignoring the law which provides for a license tax on all specimens of the canine race when harbored on the premises of any resident of the city over fifteen days.

The court was bombarded with the usual excuses for failure to comply with the law, but the tribunal was inexorable and imposed the fines provided in such cases.

A few months ago, during the mad dog scare in Virginia, when it was shown that persons in different sections of the State were suffering from rabies and when alarm was caused in our own city, where persons had been bitten by curs, the City Council, very properly, passed an ordinance requiring all dogs in Alexandria to be properly muzzled before being allowed to appear on the streets. A small percentage of owners of dogs procured wire muzzles for their pets and obeyed the law both in the letter and spirit. The great majority however, placed leather muzzles, or their dogs, which in no way prevents the animal from biting ad libitum, but the great majority of dogs running at large during the summer months have been minus muzzles of any description.

It was announced by the court recently that the law provides that dogs shall be properly muzzled when allowed to run on the streets.

Mayor Fisher issued his usual proclamation last June concerning dogs, and he is very properly requiring the police to enforce the provisions of the law. The officers and Police Court are endeavoring to make examples of all who persist in defying the provisions of the ordinance concerning the proper muzzling of dogs, as well as those who ignore the law which requires a license tax.

The proceedings of the Police Court during the past few days show that the authorities are determined to carry out the law, and should others be found violating the laws the accused will fall into the net with their eyes wide open.

MAKE MAYOR SEMMES TIRED.

Anonymous communications made Mayor Semmes, of Newport News, Va., "tired," as he aptly expressed the disgust he felt for writers of letters who are apparently afraid to sign their names to them.

Pointing to his waste basket the mayor very peevishly remarked, "I wish you would say in that paper of yours, that people who sit down and write letters of complaint to me and then refuse to sign their names are just wasting time. These people who have fault to find with the way the affairs of the city are run, but who haven't the nerve to sign their names, make me tired." The waste basket contained several communications with kicks in them about the way some of the city officials are attending to their duties, all of which purported to be written by "A Voter," "A Taxpayer," "A Citizen," and the like. Mayor Semmes has been receiving such letters daily ever since he went into office, and they all met the same executive scorn as received by the letters in his waste paper basket.

Every man who has at any time presided over the affairs of a city has had an experience similar to that of the Mayor of Newport News. The number of complainers and murmurers in communities is legion, though but few care to assume the responsibility of taking the initiative or to allow their names to be used when officials announce their readiness to enforce laws.

Many people suppose a newspaper is a public bludgeon which the publishers should use at the command or suggestion of people who decline to allow their names to be used. This class are quick to make kicks about things in general, but they invariably decline to furnish positive information themselves, although they are willing to make catspaws out of others.

No official can handle a case without positive evidence from responsible witnesses. It should not be necessary to state this fact. Yet it often happens that after chronic complaints have been made concerning some disgraceful proceedures in a community or glaring defiances of law, that when the cases eventually get in court the people the authorities should look to for support generally pretend to know the least, and when alleged culprits necessarily escape the meshes of the law under such circumstances, those who were the loudest complainters, are the first to criticise those who are anxious to carry out the law.

There are many people in Alexandria suffering annoyances in one way or another who would rejoice were some determined person to take the initiative and bear the odium of pushing prosecutions. The croakers who sign themselves taxpayers, might give their missives equal force by leaving off those words, as all good citizens are supposed to be taxpayers. Let such send their names and be ready to stand by the officials when attempts are made to right the wrongs of a community.

STRIKE IN ENGLAND.

Serious Conditions in United Kingdom—School Boys Hurt.

Birmingham, England, Sept. 20.—All the important cities and towns in Northern England are feeling the effect of the railroad and transport strike which spread to England from Ireland. At some points rail and marine traffic is completely suspended. Vast quantities of perishable freight is spoiling in this city. Liverpool, Manchester, Crewe, Derby, York, New Castle, and other places. Thousands of men are being thrown out of work by the closing down of factories which cannot get fuel.

London, Sept. 20.—Urban traffic was seriously crippled today by suspension of the Tillings Omnibus Company, one of the big concerns which operates motorbuses through the streets. Ben Smith, organizer of the Buss and Traction employes, declared that the tie-up would be complete within forty-eight hours unless concessions hitherto refused are made by the companies at once. The government took a hand in the strike situation yesterday afternoon when the Board of Trade offered to arbitrate. Strike leaders promised not to precipitate a general traffic tie-up until Monday, pending negotiations.

Doublin, Sept. 20.—Fifteen of the Catholic schoolboys who joined the Irish transport strike, were hurt in a riot here today. They struck because the books used in the pro-Cathedral Catholic School are supplied by a firm with which the transport workers have a quarrel. James Larkin, the picturesque leader of the Dublin strike, who got his economic education in the steel mills of the United States has issued an appeal to every workingman in Ireland to quit work.

The Opportunity
The TEMPLE School
—OF—
Shorthand & Typewriting

lays particular stress upon the fact that the success of a pupil depends upon the co-operation of three parties—the pupil, the teacher and the parent. Mrs. Caroline B. Stephens, the principal of the Temple School, emphasizes the fact that there is nothing more easily slighted than teaching. The pupil is not in a position to realize that he is not being properly taught. His parents very often discover it when months and in some cases, an entire year has been wasted. The parent should make it his duty to carefully select a school. Inquiries should be made to find the standing of the school in the business world, for every business school earns its reputation through the work of its individual pupils. Once a pupil is entered in a school, it is the duty of the parents to see that the pupil attends the school regularly, and that the work assigned to be done at home is prepared.

The Temple School gives its pupils the opportunity to obtain a thorough business training.

ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Welch, W. Va., Contractor Alleged to Have Raped Woman.

Bluefield, W. Va., Sept. 20.—A. K. Bell, a contractor of Welch, W. Va., is in the county jail at that place awaiting a preliminary examination on grave charges, the second to be prefered against him in a week. On Monday he was arrested by county authorities on a charge of assault, preferred against him by a woman named Mrs. Sharver, on whom this alleged crime was committed. On this charge he waived examination and was released under heavy bond. After his release he returned to work at Kimball, W. Va., and was immediately re-arrested on another charge, the nature of which officers refuse to divulge. In the meantime rumors of an ugly nature come thick and fast, but none of them can as yet be confirmed, as officers in charge of the case refuse to talk. It is reported that Bell's daughters, aged 13 and 16, will be the main witnesses to support the state's case and interesting developments, as well as most serious charges against Bell are expected.

Killed by Falling Cornice.

One man was killed, three seriously injured, and a score cut and bruised Wednesday, at Cleveland O., when a cornice from a building at 724 Superior Avenue fell to the street where thousands of persons were jammed, watching a passing parade. The police fought for twenty-five minutes with clubs before a lane could be formed so that ambulances and doctors could reach the dead and injured. Thomas Nezjeda was instantly killed and Lillian Kochendoerfer, twenty-two; William Zuber, thirty, and Francis Peterson, fifteen, badly injured. A number of persons who had been standing on the cornice fled when it was seen to give way and escaped injury.

DESTROYS MOTHER'S MONEY.

Peekskill, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Mrs. Howard Nevins, of Putnam Valley, is nursing severe burns as a result of her daughter, Miss Gladys Nevins, setting fire to her home while crimping her hair with a curling iron. She also put a crimp in her mother's bankroll, $120 in bills having been consumed by the blaze.

While heating a curling iron Miss Nevins accidentally toppled over the lamp and set fire to the contents of an opened drawer of the bureau. She summoned her mother as the flames gained headway. As Mrs. Nevins tried to save the envelope with the currency her waist caught fire.

Miss Nevins saved her by blanketing the flames with a portiere after they had blistered her arms and chest. Neighbors put the fire out with buckets of water, but not until after the money and other contents of the bureau had been destroyed.

FOR SALE.

Beautiful home in excellent condition, with modern improvements, cellar concreted and concrete walks in yard; flower garden, etc. back yard. Desirable location, within two squares of electric station. Will sell furnished or unfurnished. For further information apply on premises. 913 Prince Street. 20 1m

Fire, probably of incendiary origin, Thursday destroyed Theobolds Park, a beautiful mansion at Waltham Cross, near London, belonging to Admiral Sir Hedgeworth Lambton-Meux. The mansion, together with a large fortune, was bequeathed to Admiral Lambton by the late Lady Meux, on condition that he take the name of Meux. The loss is estimated at $500,000.

Mrs. Catherne McDonald, 27 years old,quarreled with Joseph Netterville, formerly a Vanderbilt University student, and shot herself through the breast in the midst of a matinee throng Thursday afternoon ate Indianapolis, Ind. She is dying in the city hospitol it was said last night. The shooting was the climax of a love affair between the young man, who is a son of Senator J. J. Netterville, and Mrs. McDonald, who had been living at a local hotel since her separation from her husband.

J. T. Turner, a real estate dealer, his wife and a Miss Carter, who went to Glenwood, Ark., recently from Massachusetts, carried out a suicide agreement Wednesday. When neighbors forced an entrance into the Turner home they found the two women dead and Turner dying. All had swallowed poison. Turner is still living, but physicians say he will die. A note signed by Turner left in the room read: "There is no use asking questions. We were all tired of living and wanted to go together."

Brooklyn Tabernacle BIBLE STUDY ON

THE GOLDEN CALF.

Exodus 32:15-20, 30-35—Sept. 21.

THE Israelites experienced a severe trial of faith and obedience soon after entering into covenant relationship with God. In this trial they failed utterly. The Covenant was broken. However, after punishing them, God graciously renewed the Covenant.

The circumstances of this testing are part of this lesson. After making the Covenant, Moses, by Divine direction, went up into Mt. Sinai, taking Joshua with him. He was gone forty days. His prolonged absence gave room for the cultivation of faith, patience, trust.

The Israelites remembered the trying experiences through which they had passed. The Egyptians were behind them; the Amalekites might renew their attack. What would they do without Moses, whose upheld hands brought them God's favor and victory?

Here worldly wisdom came in. Aaron was perplexed as to how to keep the people from utter discouragement. Apparently they were unable to trust the God whom they could not see. The leaders took counsel together and determined to make a representative of Jehovah—an image which the people could use as an instrument of worship.

We are not to suppose that the Israelites recognized the golden calf as their God Jehovah, but used it merely as a symbol, just as the heathen use their idols as representations of their gods, and as some Christians use the crucifix—not to worship, but to assist faith and hold attention.

Today's lesson seems clearly to indicate that God was greatly displeased with their symbolic representation of Himself. One of His commands had been, "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image," to bow down before it and worship it as a symbol.

Making the Golden Calf.

We are not to suppose that the calf was made of solid metal. Probably it was made of either clay or wood, and then covered with molten gold, which in turn was graven or tooled. Having made the idol, the people rejoiced in it as an evidence of God in their midst, and gave themselves up to a season of feasting and dancing.

After forty days, Moses came down from the mount with the tables of the Law. He heard the people shouting, and then beheld them worshiping the golden calf. Moses was justly angry; for he was the mediator between God and Israel—the representative of both, charged by God with the responsibility of that nation, and he realized that a serious crime against the Covenant had been committed.

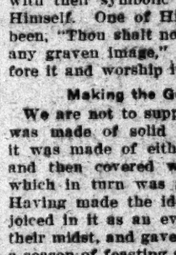
Moses dashed the tables of the Law into fragments, indicating that the Covenant had been broken. Armed with Divine authority, he let fall upon the people a just penalty for their rapid retrogression into sin. Then he went to God in prayer, and besought that, if the penalty of this sin was the casting off of Israel, he might himself be blotted out instead.

Such patriotism as Moses here evinced has surely not often been equaled—loyalty both to Israel, as representative and mediator, and also to God.

"Keep Yourselves From Idols."

Let us apply the lesson to Spiritual Israel. After the Christian has left the world, passed the bitter experiences of Marah, had manifestations of God's favor, partaken of the Bread from Heaven, and entered into full covenant relationship with God—there comes a time when he must walk by faith, not by sight. If he fails to learn this lesson, as did the typical Israelites, it will be a serious matter.

This making of images which divert and absorb our worship of God is one of Spiritual Israel's greatest tests. The golden calf which some set up is business, to which they sacrifice both time and energy. The love of money and of things which money can procure leads into idolatry, and thereby breaks our covenant.



Another Idol—Sectarianism.

Others idolize the opposite sex, giving all they possess for its favor and fellowship. They make the great mistake of worshiping the creature more than the Creator, as the Apostle explains in the book of Romans.

Still another idol is sectarianism, against which St. Paul warned the Church. (1 Corinthians 3:3-5.) The same principle we may apply today. If one says, I am of Calvin, Luther, Wesley, are these not evidences of carnality? Is there not serious danger of worshiping the human institutions bearing these names, and thus of having something come between the Christian and his God?

Christendom's creeds are Christian traditions respecting the Truth. God's purpose evidently was that His people should have no creed but the Bible as a whole. They were to search the Scriptures daily, to ascertain God's teachings, and thus to grow in grace and knowledge. Christians should destroy their creeds, which misrepresent God's Character and Plan.

THOMAS W. ROBINSON

"The Best Cement in the World"

A very broad saying, and to the novice in construction work might produce a cynical smile, but to the builder and contractor and engineer or architect, the saying is a truism...

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

DYNAMITED HIS HOUSE.

Stonemason Kills Himself Ana Daughter.

Blomington, Ind., Sept. 20.—Carefully selecting the places where he believed the most damage would be done, Mack Hurst, 50 years old, a stonemason, early yesterday blew up his home here with dynamite, killing himself and his 17--year-old daughter, Maude, injuring two other children, and stunning his wife.

Hurst had been separated from his wife for six weeks and Thursday she refused to take him back. It is believed that he then, in a fit of insanity, determined to wipe out the entire family, consisting of his wife and eight children.

The dead girl met the fate intended for her mother and the fact that they had changed beds for the night cost the daughter her life. Hurst, after stealthily painting a stick of dynamite under each of the three beds in the house, in the darkness, tied two sticks to his own body, crawled into the bed which he had formerly occupied with his wife, but which Thursday night contained the three daughters, Maude, Fannie, and Elizabeth.

Fannie spoke to her father, "Lay still," Hurst replied. "We will all die together."

Before the girl could make a move the explosion rent the house and aroused the entire city. The police and fire department rushed to the scene, sent the two injured girls to the hospital, and cleared away the debris. Four sticks of dynamite, unexploded, were found in the ruins, and the fact that only one, and that one attached to Hurst's body, had exploded, accounted for the escape of the other members of the famly.

NEGRO YOUTH GETS 20 YEARS.

Convicted of Attempted Assault on White Girl.

Leonardtown, Md., Sept. 20.—Samuel Gross, a 14-year-old negro boy, was sentenced yesterday to 20 years in the penitentiary for an attempted criminal assault upon Miss Lena Westfall. 17 years old, of Valley Lee, this county.

The case was tried before Judges Briscoe, Beall and Camalier. The negro was represented by J. H. Ching and Robert C. Combs.

The attempted assault occurred on September 9. Miss Westfall testified that the negro, driving a wagon, passed her while she was walking along the road. He left his team came back and attacked her. Miss Westfall fought her assailant off and hurried to a neighboring store, where she reported the attack. The negro was arrested and was readily identified by the girl.

KILLED BY SHIFTING ENGINE.

Run Down aid Horribly Mangled on C. and O. Tracks.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 20.—W. E. Wells, a laborer, known to his friends as "Blackburn," was struck and instantly killed last night by a shifting engine of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway in Canal street near Seventh. Jack Turner, the engineer, was unaware of the accident until he got down from his engine and saw blood and pieces of human flesh sticking on the forward trucks. He walked back a short distance and found the mangled remains of Wells lying near the tracks.

Well's head was almost completely severed from the body, and his legs and arms were hanging on by threads.

SMITH ATTRACTS CROWDS.

People From Distant Points go to Danville to Hear Evangelist.

Danville, Va., Sept. 20.—"Gypsy" Smith revival services, which have been in progress here since last Sunday night, are being largely attended, and there has not been a night when the Ridge Church Tabernacle, capable of seating 3,000 people, was not filled to it scapacity.

People are coming in he rfrom distant points to hear the evangelist, one arriving yesterday from Florida and another from Indiana. The evangelist has won many converts since he came to Danville.

It is not an old-fashioned revival where the converts approach the evangelist and shake hands. Instead they are ushered into two large inquiry rooms, which have been partitioned off in the tabernacle, where the personal workers take charge of them.

The evangelist, who first saw light in a Gypsy camp in England is a remarkably forceful speaker, and a man with a wonderful insight into human nature. His sermon on "Repentance," preached on Thursday night, is regarded as being one of the strongest heard here in years.

MAGNIFICENT EXPOSITION

A magnificent Exposition of Virginia industrial and agricultural products and resources, including live stock, has been provided for this year on larger and more comprehensive lines than has ever been heretofore attempted. This policy of expansion and innovation has been carried out in every department at enormous cost, and by persistent effort on the part of the Association. Cash prizes have been increased, a new steel and concrete Viaduct Bridge has been erected over the Railroads near the grounds, at a cost of $30,000. A large addition has been made to the Grand Stand, increasing greatly its comfort and seating capacity, and necessitating the operation of two Vaudeville Stages in order to present an unusual array of Free attractions, including educational features, novelties and amusements secured from almost every land and almost every race through prominent Agents in both America and Europe.
